

FAQ's

WHAT IS ACT RESPONSIBLE?

WHO WE ARE: ACT Responsible is an international and independent non-profit association initiated in 2001 by AdForum.com employees. ACT stands for Advertising Community Together.

OUR MISSION: Inspire, promote, share good practices and federate the actors of the advertising and communications fields around social responsibility and sustainable development.

WHAT WE DO: Each year we identify and gather thousands of the best local or global advertising campaigns addressing social & environmental issues.

All these campaigns are archived into the largest online database specialized on these matters.

We curate "Great Ads for Good Causes" exhibitions, projections and themed & customized selections, making sure the campaigns reach their audience and meet their purpose: raise awareness.

We mobilize a worldwide network of supporters in agencies, media, production companies, advertisers, institutions, NGOs and corporations, who believe responsible advertising essential to modern communications.

We launch initiatives to promote the creativity of the advertising community and highlight its role in addressing world crucial issues such as The Good Report, One minute of Responsibility or the Care Awards.

If you believe Responsible communication is the future of advertising and would like to sustain this collective industry effort, consider becoming a Member.

1 – ACT RESPONSIBLE CANNES EXHIBITION

The ACT Responsible Exhibition premieres in Cannes every year during the Cannes Lions Festival - from June 17th-24th in 2017.

WHERE EXACTLY IS LOCATED THE ACT RESPONSIBLE EXHIBITION IN CANNES?

The ACT Exhibition is at the heart of the Palais des Festivals, right in the Foyer Debussy, the way to the 1000+ seats theatre that held 30 seminars during the 7 days' festival last year, giving plenty of opportunities for the 16,000 registered delegates to enjoy the exhibition and pick their favorite campaign to elect the Cannes Tributes 2017, a recognition given by the visitors - and the Internet users as the voting is open online too.

www.act-responsible.org - info@act-responsible.org

WHO DECIDES WHAT IS SHOWN IN THE EXHIBITION?

The work presented in the Exhibition is selected by the ACT Responsible Editorial Team, who will check that all requirements have been met and validate the work. The team is entitled to refuse entries which may offend national, cultural or religious sentiments or public taste. The selection will be made per the space available to reflect the diversity of entries and the creativity of the advertising industry. Selection will be done under the sole responsibility of the team, who is free in its choices.

WOULD IT MAKE A DIFFERENCE IF THE WORK SENT TO ACT RESPONSIBLE WERE ALSO ENTERED IN THE CANNES LIONS CATEGORIES?

ACT Responsible and Cannes Lions are two separate organizations. ACT Responsible is NOT an award organization. Cannes Lions and ACT Responsible have a great relationship but DO NOT SHARE ENTRIES.

2 – THE GOOD REPORT

WHAT IS "THE GOOD REPORT"?

The Good Report, created in collaboration between ACT Responsible and The Gunn Report, is a ranking of the annual round up of campaigns identified by ACT Responsible and entered in its database. It has been created to celebrate the campaigns that best use creativity to promote sustainability and social responsibility and to raise awareness of the world's major social and environmental issues.

HOW CAN MY WORK BE INCLUDED IN THE "THE GOOD REPORT"?

All submissions to the ACT Responsible program are included in The Good Report. The corpus of selected campaigns is our annual round-up of the world's best cause-related advertising identified by our editorial team on criteria of creativity, innovation, execution, understanding + the campaigns participation in the ACT Responsible Program.

HOW IS THE RANKING CALCULATED?

The formula combines the presence and performance in ACT Responsible such as, but not only ACT Tribute (public vote during the Cannes Exhibition), Care Awards performance, fidelity to the cause, promotion of the campaign ... and The Gunn Report ranking.

3 – THE CARE AWARDS

WHAT ARE THE CARE AWARDS?

The European Association of Communications Agencies (EACA) and ACT Responsible launched these creative awards in 2008 in a bid to highlight the advertising industry's specific contribution to society by awarding the most creative social & environmental campaigns.

The Awards cover issues such as public health, environment, sustainable consumption, public safety, disability, human rights, domestic violence, child abuse, homelessness, education and other similar topical public issues.

HOW CAN I ENTER THE CARE AWARDS?

The Care Awards are open to all campaigns submitted to ACT Responsible. You may enter as many campaigns as you like.

CAN I ONLY ENTER THE CARE AWARDS?

Yes, please write to careawards@act-responsible.org to specify your request.

The price is the same as for the ACT Responsible program minus the 50€ membership.

WHAT ARE THE CATEGORIES OF THE CARE AWARDS?

- Non-profit Organizations and Non-Governmental Bodies - An organization that exists for educational or charitable reasons and from which shareholders or trustees do not benefit financially. An organization created by private persons or organizations with no participation or representation of any government.

- Government Bodies and Related Organizations - An organization that is the governing authority of a political unit, the ruling power in a political society and the apparatus through which a governing body functions and exercises authority.
- Local and Regional Authorities - Government departments which make decisions on a local or regional level e.g. ministries, district, borough or city councils, regional development agencies.
- Corporate Governance (CSR) - Corporate campaigns that promote care for safety, youth, communities and the environment.

If you are unsure in which category to enter, please email careawards@act-responsible.org with a brief description of the campaign you wish to enter followed by your questions.

WHAT IS THE JUDGING PROCEDURE?

The jury will consider a shortlist of campaigns drawn from direct submissions by agencies and will decide on the winning entries in a range of categories.

Judging of the Care Awards takes place in two rounds.

- Round 1, is considered a pre-selection of the 25 (approx.) top scoring campaigns. The selection committee is formed by EACA, ACT Responsible, NGO's Communication Directors (NGAd Club) and agency representatives. Round 1 is handled entirely online.
- Round 2, the judging committee formed by NGO's Communication Directors, Agency Creatives, and Advertisers, chaired by an NGO President, will follow the same procedure than for Round 1.

WHAT ARE THE JUDGES LOOKING FOR?

Below you will find a set of questions that you should ask yourself when writing your case. These are there to help you understand in what way to formulate your answers in order for your written case to be well understood by the judges.

- A clear and concise presentation: what were you trying to achieve? What happened? How did you do it? How easily can the audience understand it? Keep jargon out and choice of language simple.
- Scale of task: be obvious about what was so great about your work and that no one else managed to do before.
- Innovation: what was clever? What was new?
- Use of media channels: which did you use and why?

WHAT IS THE CARE AWARDS CALENDAR?

Call for Entries: January 30th– April 8th 2017

Late Entry Deadline: April 9th 2017- April 28th 2017

Round 1 judging: May 2017

Round 2 judging: September 2017

Awards Winners will be announced at the end of September (tbc)
